TROUBLE IN OKLAHOMA.

Crazy Snake with 100 Indians and Negro Desperadoes Takes to the Hills. Militia in Pursuit.

Oklahoma City, Ok., March 28.—Chief Crazy Snake and 100 followers retreated before five companies of Oklahoma militia late tonight, thus deferring an expected battle until tomorrow. Hastily setting fire to his tepees and tents, the Indian leader, with his mixed company of redskins and negroes, fled from his blazing camp as the troops advanced. He took up a strong position between the North Canadian River and Deep Fork Creek, about seven miles east of Henryetta.

Col. Hoffman, in command of the state troops, considered it unwise to push the pursuit and engage the Indians in the darkness. Accordingly he bivouacked his troops for the night. Early in the morning, reinforced by a company of cowboys from the country around Lawton, Ok., all crack shots, he will lead his forces against the Indians.

Crazy Snake and his braves will be offered a chance to surrender. If they refuse the battle will be on.

Three Signal Fires.

Col. Hoffman sent out numerous scouts to watch the movements of the enemy and to give the alarm if they attempted to flee under cover of darkness. The commander planned to give his weary troops a rest on the field during the night unless the Indians attempted to escape to a stronger position. The militia officers believe Crazy Snake wants to reach the Tiger Mountains with his followers before engaging in a general fight. That the old chief is striving to stir the Creeks to an uprising and strike for what he conceives to be his due, was evident from the smoke from three signal fires on adjacent hills just before sundown. Old-time frontiersmen declare this is a sign which always ushers in Indian troubles.

Mr. Charles F. Barrett, in charge of the commissary, received hurry orders tonight by courier to send supplies and additional ammunition to the soldiers at the camp. From this it is inferred that the officers expect a long chase before a fight.

Six men have been killed and a dozen wounded since the trouble began Thursday. This is the official report, and it is generally believed many more of the Indians and negroes are killed.

J. R. Wallace of Dustin, Ok., who went to the Hickory Hills with the troops today, declared that twenty negroes were killed Thursday and Saturday and were buried without coffins in the vicinity where the soldiers camped tonight.

All Oklahoma Aroused.

This Sunday was full of thrill. All Oklahoma was aroused. As the troops of reports of the slaying of Marshal Baum and Deputy Sheriff Odom were spread broadcast the people were inflamed with a determination to make an end of the troublesome band.

First a strong posse visited Crazy Snake's home, intending to capture him. He had fled, but they found documents in his house containing lists of the Indians enrolled in his uprising. Also they found the mutilated bodies of Odom and Baum.

While the chief had fled, his son fell into the hands of the palefaces, from him the deputies choked a confession of his father's misdoings and a full statement of the murderous doings of the previous night. The choking was literal. Slipping a new rope around the young Carlisle graduate's neck, they lifted him from the ground in the way the vigilance committees of the Far West used to make thieves quit stealing. He was ready to tell all then, and today set the white men on his father's trail.

While all this was going on the state officials were getting aroused. Gov. Haskell ordered out troops by wholesale. Every company in Oklahoma either was rushed to the scene or ordered to prepare to go.

Dr. Riley at Baptist Church.

Dr. B. F. Riley remained over in Bryan from his lecture here on Friday night, and preached at the First Baptist church Sunday at morning and evening services. Both of his sermons were plain expositions of the scriptures, told in language so simple that a child could understand the great truths discussed. They were helpful and uplifting to all who heard them, and one and all came away with higher resolves and nobler purposes.

At night the sermon was especially fine, using as a subject, "Belief, the essential for Salvation." The text was the conversion of the jailer and his household when Paul and Silas prayed and the prison doors were opened. He gave particular stress to the simplicity of belief, and he put it in a light plainer and simpler than any had ever heard it before.

Dr. Riley returned to his home in Dallas on Sunday night.

BRYAN, TEXAS, MARCH 30, 1909.

PUBLISHERS NOTICE.

Beginning Wednesday afternoon, March 31st, the Morning Eagle and Pilot will be changed to an afternoon paper. This change is made for several reasons:

First—An afternoon edition will give our subscribers the news while it is fresh and also give them a better opportunity to read their papers at a time when they have leisure rather than in the rush and hurry of beginning the day's activities in the early morning.

Second—It will be better for advertisers because the papers will be read more closely by the subscribers.

Third—By making this change we can give our readers a far better telegraphic news service than the one we have had heretofore. This service will be full and reliable and, coming as it does hot from the wires, will be twelve hours ahead of all other papers delivered in Bryan or Brazos county. The matter will be more interesting, too, because it will make a specialty of Texas news, but it will include also all important events in other states and in foreign countries.

Inasmuch as it costs us more than twice as much as the plate service, which was the best we could afford heretofore, we feel confident the people of Bryan and Brazos county will accept this change as an evidence that it is our intention to give them the best newspaper that is possible with the facilities at our command.

THE EAGLE PRINTING CO.

There is keen irony in the sending of $20 from Christian converts in China to an American bishop with instruction that the money be applied to "that foreign field."

Judge Robinson of Belton has instructed the jury commissioners that they must eliminate the professional jurymen, commonly known as the "set fast," from the jury lists in his courts. Verily the world is growing better.

After a red-hot exciting game of ball between the Bryan Sluggers and College Sluggers played on the A. and M. Campus Saturday afternoon, the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of the Bryan team. The "Kid" team of Bryan is a very enthusiastic aggregation of players and are highly elated over their victory.

EXERPS FROM EXCHANGES.

As a means of showing examples of human selfishness, the tariff bill has already proven a great success.—Galveston Tribune.

He is a good booster, who never grumbles about others but works quietly and earnestly to attain a given purpose.—Sherman Democrat.

None object to taxes, the kind or degree, if returns are reasonable. It is not what a man pays that counts, but what he gets for the price.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Tom Perkins is being talked of for governor. Tom would make a rattling good governor, but journalism can not spare him. The governorship is too small a job for a good editor.—Paris Advocate.

A reminiscence is an anecdote that will remind you of the days in Cleburne when a fellow could stand on the outside of a long mahogany counter, look at himself in the glass and say: "I'll take sugar in mine."—Cleburne Enterprise.

What do we care if the old gasoline engine don't run when we want it to? This entire shop will be run by electricity in a week or so from now. That is all but the editorial department—that will continue in the same old fashioned way.—Eagle Pass News.

It is always well to bear in mind business locations never pick out dead towns. A small live place often holds forth more inviting opportunities to the settler than do the larger cities.—Gainesville Register.

And now the story is printed again that the sweet girl graduate this year will wear plain white dresses in order to give the poor girl a square deal. This is printed about two months before the commencement season each year, but fails to work out in practice.—Beaumont Enterprise.

The spring advertising this year is of surpassing volume. All the papers, except possibly half a dozen moribund sheets in as many torpid towns, are carrying bright and seasonable mercantile announcements. And there is as much difference, for the better, between the typography of these advertisements and their subject matter and the advertising of five or ten years ago as there is in the average small town store of today and a decade ago. We are a progressing people.—Galveston News.

The Meteor has been informed that several parties who moved from this county to that better country, West Texas, have written of friends stating that prospects out there did not look as bright to them as had been pictured, and that they may turn their faces toward old Madison county at no distant day. Come on, friends, we will joyfully welcome your return, but we have a good laugh coming to us.—Madisonville Meteor.

"Cheerful
Clothes
for Men"

"Americans are the most bigoted people on earth," says Vice Admiral W. Ursburne Moore, retired, of the British navy. Are the blasted Britishers getting grouchy because we are taking away from them their most prominent characteristic?

In an editorial defending Governor Campbell for insisting on legislative action upon the so-called platform demands the Palestine Herald says: "Texas people are getting their eyes open and it is barely possible that hereafter some care will be taken as to what goes into a platform." Every one who has had experience in political conventions knows how easy it is to get any old thing in the platform when there is no shrewd manipulator who has an interest in opposing it. As "Private John Allen" of Mississippi once said in an interview while he was in congress, platforms are made to get in on, not to stand on.

IS THE WORLD GROWING BETTER.

A unique feature of the service at the Methodist church Sunday evening was the grand old song Nearer My God to Thee as a duet sung by Miss Hattie Lou Hudson and rendered in the deaf mute sign language by Miss Lillie Morris, daughter of the pastor, Prof. J. Bert Graham accompanying on the organ. Miss Morris' poses and gestures were the perfection of grace and rhythmical as the flow of Miss Hudson's soft, sweet soprano voice.

Dr. Morris read a passage from Ezekiel describing the river of salvation flowing with ever increasing volume till the waters gladdened and fruited the whole earth, also a passage from the Apocalypse portraying the beauty and beneficence of the river of life. The text was the oft quoted declaration of Isaiah that the word of the Lord should not return into him void but should accomplish that for which he sent it forth. Taking up the second chapter of Amos Dr. Morris depicted the awful condition of the world eight centuries before Christ, all the nations sunk in gross corruption, beastly and heathenish moral darkness, with only a feeble glimmering ray of light in Israel. Then with his dark picture he contrasted the present condition of the world when justice and mercy are the basis of law, of business and of all social intercourse. With fervid patriotism our own great country was glorified as the leader in righteousness among the nations, the liberation of Cuba and the paying back to China the excess of the indemnity over the actual damages in the Boxer affair being mentioned as instances. In conclusion Dr. Morris sketched the worldwide movement for universal peace and predicted that there very live to see the day when men would come in the congregation who would live to see the day when men would beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks and study war no more.

Railroad Commissioner Storey Dead.

In the death of Hon. L. J. Storey, former lieutenant governor and railroad commissioner for many years, Texas has lost a good man. His death was wholly unexpected, as he was in good health until last Thursday, and not till the very last was his illness thought to be serious. He died Sunday morning of heart failure at the age of 75 years. He was a fine specimen of the Southern gentleman of the old school of whom there are not many left. He made an honorable record as a Confederate soldier and has held many positions in civil life, and in every station he has been honest and capable.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

W. J. Coulter's Store the Center of Attraction Monday Afternoon.

The ladies of Bryan had been invited to a reception at the store of Mr. W. J. Coulter on Monday afternoon at which Miss Blanche Society and Sir Charles Patriot were to be the honorees of the occasion. The store was handsomely decorated for the affair and the elegant goods in endless variety, had been artistically arranged for the reception of the guests. A brimming punch bowl was placed in the rear of the store and over this two charming little ladies, Misses Madeline Hanway and Helen Demaret presided with elegant grace and dispensed the refreshing beverage to the great host of lady callers.

Miss Blanche Society, clad in a $500 gown and an elegant hat with sweeping plumes, was stationed near the punch bowl. Her costume was much admired by the ladies and in just the nicest way imaginable, she demonstrated to the callers the beauty, grace and elegance of "Society" shoes, manufactured by Robert, Johnson & Rand Shoe Company of St. Louis. Sir Charles Patriot stood near the front entrance and distributed advertising souvenirs.

At night a fine moving picture show was given in front of the store, and the pictures were interspersed with advertising matter of the shoe company they represented.

The afternoon and evening were decided successes and Mr. Coulter and his courteous assistants are grateful to the hundreds of ladies who called and graced the occasion with their presence.

CALLED A PASTOR.

Christian Church Extends Call to Rev. James N. Thomas of Haskell.

Rev. J. N. Thomas of Haskell, Texas, preached at the First Christian church in this city at both morning and evening services Sunday. At the morning hour his theme was "The Good Samaritan," and at the evening service he chose as a theme, "The Manhood of the Bible." Both sermons were said by those who heard them, to be masterpieces and the congregations that heard him were charmed.

Immediately after the evening service a full meeting of the church board was held and Rev. Thomas was unanimously called as pastor of this church, and the call was accepted. Rev. Thomas will move to Bryan with his family, a wife and one child, within the next two weeks. Definite announcement can be made however, that he will be here to enter upon his work on Sunday, April 11th.

Rev. Thomas comes to Bryan well recommended as an earnest, consecrated man of God and will be given a cordial welcome by all the Christian people of Bryan. Mrs. Thomas is a lady of high culture and an enthusiastic church worker.

The following named gentlemen who were appointed by President E. H. Edge of the Retail Merchants Association, as a committee to raise a bonus for the A. and M. College trolley line are requested to meet at the Carnegie hall this morning at 10 o'clock sharp. J. A. Myers, H. O. Boatwright, W. E. Saunders, A. W. Wilkerson, Tyler Haswell, J. E. Astin, A. W. Buchanan, M. H. James, J. L. Edge, E. F. Parks and W. J. Coulter. A full attendance is highly important and earnestly requested.

G. S. PARKER, Chairman.

Great Meeting at Hempstead.

Rev. S. W. Kendrick, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. Payne, in a meeting at Hempstead, writes that they are having a fine meeting in the Baptist church of that place. He reports twenty public professions and twelve received for baptism. The house is not large enough to accommodate the crowds so great is the interest.

Runaway at Kurten.

The buggy-horse of Dr. W. G. Drummond of Kurten, took fright at something Sunday and ran away, smashing the buggy and pretty badly. Miss Euna Drummond and Miss Ella Edge were in the buggy and both were thrown out and pretty badly bruised up, but fortunately not seriously hurt.

New Cemetery Fence Here.

The new iron fence for the cemetery, bought by the ladies of the Cemetery Association through Mr. J. A. Myers, has arrived. The fence and its erection will cost something over $800, one half to be paid by the Cemetery Association and the other half by the city council.

Wood Contract Awarded.

Bids for supplying the A. and M. College with 1400 cords of wood were opened at the president's office at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and the contract awarded to G. R. Wicker and C. E. Boyett of this city.
